

How Does Your Nonprofit Measure Up?

10 Reasons Your Nonprofit Needs a Lawyer:

- 1 ● Your organization is about to receive a major endowed gift or wants to modify the terms of an endowment.
- 2 ● You want to hire a member of the Board of Directors or buy goods or services from a director.
- 3 ● You want to go into business with a for-profit company.
- 4 ● You are considering a merger, sale, spin-off, conversion to for-profit, liquidation or any transformation of the organization's structure.
- 5 ● You want to revise your by-laws.
- 6 ● Your organization is about to enter into a major contract.
- 7 ● Your organization plans to engage in lobbying or political activity.
- 8 ● Your organization wants to scale up an idea, program or technology by licensing it to others.
- 9 ● You need help with employee issues.
- 10 ● Any time a suit is threatened (or filed) against the organization or its Board of Directors.

A business lawyer for nonprofits

LEAH COHEN CHATINOVER
Direct: 860-947-4483 • Cell: 860-655-1717
LChatinover@StangerLaw.com
ct-nonprofitlaw.com

StangerLaw.com

info@stangerlaw.com • StangerLaw.com

StangerLaw.com
Corporate Center West, 433 South Main St., Suite No 112
West Hartford, CT 06110

